Profitable Feeding of Hens

To make the barnyard hen do a greater days work, Prof. Meyer E. Jaffa, head of the pure food laboratory of the state and professor of nutrition of the state university at Berkeley, whose investigations in this subject have attracted widespread interest, has begun a series of experiments in scientific feeding of the bird.

All varieties of hens are being employed in the tests, which will extend over a long period, and all kinds of food will be given them. Their diet will be carefully selected and weighed and the cost of each egg will be carefully computed by the university scientist. At the end of the investigation he will prepare a table showing the amount and cost of the food given the hen and the number of eggs laid, with the cost of production of each egg.

Although this line of investigation is not entirely new with Professor Jaffa, he has never before carried it to termination. His researches this year will be more complete than ever before and better adapted for industrial use.

Linseed, cotton seed, meats of various kinds and meals will be fed the chickens during the course of the experimentation work. Professor Jaffa is of the opinion that not enough care is taken of the feeding for the best results for egg producing. He believes that cheap food can be secured and still highly satisfactory results obtained.

His scheme will have the end in view of having the hen do a good day's work, one egg a day for seven days a week, and it was for this purpose that he took up his investigations several years ago.

Big Battleships

Congress may be asked next winter to provide four 30,000-ton battleships, each with 14 inch guns and each costing $120,000. It is stated that such a program has been pretty carefully studied out. After considerable preliminary work the first 14-inch gun has been constructed at the Midvale works and will shortly be tested at the naval proving grounds at Indian Head. If it is deemed advisable to have guns of 14 inch calibre, it will immediately become a question as to whether there shall be ten or twelve such guns on each battleship.

The proposition two years ago during the Newport conference was to have ten 14-inch guns, the former calibre to have relatively diminished velocity. It was finally decided, however, that when the 14-inch gun was developed, it would be of hitting power commensurate with the increase of calibre and compared with the 12-inch gun. There is an inclination also to adhere to twelve guns in a battleship battery, and it is possible that the adoption of the 14 inch gun there will be twelve instead of ten of those rifles.

It is likely that such battleships will have the same speed and endurance as the 26,000-ton battleships now building. Much may depend in the determination of this question upon the plans adopted by the European navies.

Standard Oil File Papers

The Standard Oil Company filed articles of incorporation in the county clerk's office in Santa Rosa Tuesday. This is the first time they have ever filed a copy of their article in Sonoma county and it is taken as an indication that the recent discovery of oil and gas at Petaluma has attracted the attention of the big concern. Other reports say that the Standard is back of the development in this vicinity.

Another million dollar corporation known as the Gold Ridge Oil Co., with their principal place of business given as Sebastopol, filed articles of incorporation with the county clerk Tuesday, at Santa Rosa, with the intention of developing the Forestville district. The directors are a number of prominent men from different parts of the state.—Courier.

Active at 87.

This would be unusual news if men and women would keep themselves free from rheumatism and all aches and pains as well as keeping their muscles and joints limber with Ballard's Snow Liniment. Sold by L. S. Simmons.

Gone to Rest

Once more death has called from this earthly sphere one of Sonoma's residents and removed from our midst Mrs. A. Bain, who has resided in this valley for over forty years, and here reared a family of three boys, Robert W., now of San Francisco; John L., of Oakland; and Charles C., of this city.

A little more than two weeks ago Mrs. Bain enjoyed a visit in Oakland and while there contracted a cold and upon her return took to her bed and though loving hands did all possible to help her, it was for naught, and Sunday evening the spark of life was extinguished and she passed to the beyond, leaving this world at the age of 76 years, 11 months and 15 days.

The funeral was held from Bates undertaking parlors Tuesday afternoon, and was well attended by friends and relatives. There were a large number of floral pieces presented, and in their pure and fragrant silence bespoke the sentiment of a life of honor and steadfastness for the deceased.

Interment was in Mountain cemetery.

The sympathy of all is extended to those bereaved and all realize that these boys have lost their best friend—their mother.

See Airship in Flight

A number of people in San Francisco and Petaluma were considerably excited last week over what appeared to be an airship sailing over head bearing two lights.

Prof. Crawford solves the mystery as follows:
"The people were the victims of an aerial joke. The two lights seen so vividly were the planets Jupiter and Venus. Jupiter is only 450,000,000 miles away from the earth and Venus something over 40,000,000 miles distant from our planet. "Jupiter is on the far side of the sun and Venus occupies the space between the sun and the earth. Now Jupiter and Venus, like all planets, move in about the same elliptic, though a great distance apart they lay in the same plane or the same line of vision. The conjunction of Jupiter and Venus could easily place the planets in such a position as to fool people who are not familiar with the planetary bodies.

California Supplement

The Advance Geography that has been adopted for use in the public schools by the State Board of Education is about to be put on sale by the Text Book Committee. George L. Sackett, secretary of that committee, will announce the price in a day or two.

The book has been in use in other school departments for about nine years, but additional interest attaches to this one on account of the supplement relating to California that has been added by the Text Book Committee. It contains a great deal of interesting reading material and is admirably illustrated with half tone cuts of California scenes.

Superior California shares liberally in the distribution of the pictures and the statistical and descriptive matter is timely and interesting. Edward Hyatt, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, assisted in compiling the supplement.

Fitting In Windows

The work of putting in the windows in the casings of the new court house is about two-thirds done, that is all are in position in the basement and lower story. Some doors have also been hung. The work is in charge of Mr. Reed, of the M. G. West Company of San Francisco, the concern that furnishes the material.

The marble setters are at work on the corridor running back from the front entrance of the structure and also upon one of the stair cases. Half of the hall floor on the second story has been laid with the black marble, as have also the toilet floors.

Workmen began Tuesday to lay a concrete roof over the big oil tank recently installed under the pavement on Third Street, near the building. It will be built a few feet below the street level.—Republican

Sulphur Dioxide Process

Three of the five distinguished scientists designed by former President Roosevelt in February, 1908, to investigate the sulphur dioxide process which is used by California growers and packers in preparing dried fruits for consumption, arrived in San Francisco last week.

They are Dr. Ira Remsen, president of Johns Hopkins University, of Baltimore; Dr. Russell C. Chittenden, Director of the Sheffield School of Science of Yale University, New Haven, Conn., and Dr. John H. Long, professor of physiological chemistry of Northwestern University, Chicago.

Together with their equally eminent conferees, Dr. Alonzo E. Taylor, professor of pathology of the University of California, and Dr. C. A. Herter, professor of pharmacology of Columbia University, the noted visitors constitute the national referee board, whose function it shall be to decide whether the sulphuring process of curing dried fruits is or is not injurious to health and life.

Upon the decision of this board rests the future of California's dried fruit industry. If, upon careful and exhaustive investigation, the board finds that deleterious effects ensue upon the eating of dried fruits cured with sulphur fumes, incalculable damage will be done to an immense industry, in which $15,000,000 are invested, unless a harmless substitute preservative may be discovered.

Superior Court Notes

The final account of the estate of W. H. Magoon was settled.

These probate matters were continued: Charles P. Weyhe, Lossen Ross to August 23; M. Martindell and H. S. Greeley to September 7.

The trial of the suit of Rogers vs. Schlottback et al was continued and set for trial for October 14.

The trial of the suit of White vs. White was set for September 14.

In the suit of Perotta vs. Perotta an order was made for the sale of the Fourth street property.

The suit of the Sonoma Land Co vs the Northwestern Pacific Railway was continued to August 23.

When the sky is full of airships, will not the question of roadhouses be a perplexing problem? Still, where there is a will a way is generally discovered.

Wedded at High Noon

Wednesday, at high noon at the Union Hotel, the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Koenig, Miss Mary Livernash and John Ingalls, of Healdsburg were united in marriage.

The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. Edward Lawrence, O. P. of Benecia—a life-long friend and schoolmate of the bride—assisted by Rev. John Leahy, of Sonoma.

The bridal pair plighted their troth in a beautifully decorated bower—a wealth of pink and white sweet pea blossoms and asparagus fern intermingling with true love knots of satin ribbon. The bride was elegantly gowned in pearl grey crepe over Louise silk, with silver trimmings, and carried a shower of Burbank Shasta daisies. She was attended by her sister, Miss Adele Livernash, who was attractively gowned in pink tulle, with pearl trimmings. Miss Livernash's bouquet was of pink carnations.

Dr. C. W. Weaver, of Healdsburg, officiated as groomsmen, and Mrs. Joseph P. Berry, of Santa Rosa, played the bridal march.

A sumptuous breakfast followed, and on the California Northwestern, Mr. and Mrs. Ingalls left for Santa Cruz and other points on a honeymoon trip. On their return they will reside at Healdsburg.

Both bride and groom have a wide circle of friends throughout the county, by whom they are held in highest esteem. Mrs. Ingalls has been deputy postmistress of Healdsburg office for twelve years, and Mr. Ingalls is now holding the position of deputy state game warden.

Surprise Party at El Verano

A surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Gates, Saturday evening in honor of the departure of Mrs. Gates' mother and brother, Mrs. Briggs and Chester Briggs, to their home in Muskegan, Mich. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Joost, Mr. and Mrs. Bridges, Mr. and Mrs. Burns and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Burmester and children, Mr. and Mrs. Sanger, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff and Mr. Corbin. The early part of the evening was taken up with music and card playing, and at a late hour dainty refreshments were served. At the midnight hour all departed for their homes, wishing Mrs. Briggs and son a pleasant and safe return home.

Natives Enjoy Banquet

Monday evening the Native Sons met in regular session in I. O. O. F. hall in this city and had a most enjoyable time. Three candidates, Peter Perazzo, Eddie Peterson and Jos. Moffee had the privilege of riding the goat and learned the mystries of the order.

Several speeches were made. Among the speakers were Jesse Priesthood, Dr. Gottenberg and M. F. Cummings, each adding their quota to the evening's entertainment. Jep. Valente, Alfred Jensen and Fred Marzo, each favored the assembly with a vocal selection. Last came the banquet and those having this feast in charge deserve due credit for the excellent spread served.

As the hour drew near to midnight the assembly dispersed to their homes, each thoroughly satisfied with their evening's pleasure.

A Swell Party

Today a swell party is being given at the home of H. D. Burmester to Mrs. Briggs, mother of Mrs. E. O. Gates. Covers are laid for eight and the decorations are in pansies and maidenhair ferns. This is a farewell party in honor of Mrs. Briggs, as she will leave shortly for her home in Muskegan, Michigan.

Miss Poppe's Recital

The pleasure seekers of Glen Ellen were given a treat last evening when they attended the recital given by Miss Amy E. Poppe.

True interpretation is very difficult and it is not often that an audience is awakened to mirth or plunged into sorrow by the interpreter, but this recital was a decided exception to the rule, and at each appearance of this talented lady the audience was held in perfect control and lifted to the clouds, filled with joy or hurled to the depths with deepest sorrow and despair.

Miss Poppe's interpretation of the negro wash woman and her daughter was excellent, and her recital of the little boy who left his humble home to find with a rich lady and then to find that he loved home and mother better by far than riches, was exceptionally well interpreted. The courtship of the lonely Scotchman with his quaint dialect was enjoyed by all and at its close the audience was thrown from solemnity to laughter with the final windup of the courtship.

Despite the fact that Miss Poppe has not as yet finished her course of study in the Cumnock School she shows by her readings that she is already an accomplished and talented artist in this line and has well chosen her profession.

Among the other features of the evening were several selections by Bailey's orchestra, vocal solos by Mrs. Haskins and a cornet solo by George Wickham, accompanied by Miss Josephine Lane, all of which are worthy of special mention.

The Fire Tuesday

Who can say that we Sonomaites can not spint a bit? And who can say that our merchants are not in line for a good run when there is a fire at hand?

Tuesday at 2 P. M. business was temporarily suspended when the clang of the fire bell was heard and every one—the fat man, the bald headed man, the bow legged and the lean and lanky, all began a hot-foot for the scene of the calamity and after a sprint of a quarter of a mile under a temperature of about a hundred, the assembly arrived to find their assistance was not needed.

It appears that Mrs. A. W. Kendall was canning fruit and that some paraffine she had on the oil stove caught fire and the blaze reached the curtain on the window nearby. She made frantic efforts to put out the fire, but was unsuccessful. Help arrived from the ice plant, nearby, and the flames were soon extinguished, before the arrival of the fire department and its crowd of followers.

Naturally Mrs. Kendall was very much excited and, when all danger was passed, fainted away. She was revived by those present and is now recovered from the excitement. There was only slight damage done to the furnishings and no damage to the building.

A Pleasant Birthday Party

A pleasant birthday party was tendered Philip Bill Jr., by his many friends at the residence of his parents—"Maple Lodge"—on Napa street, on last Sunday evening, it being the occasion of the young man's 20th birthday. The front porch was brightly lit up and the parlor and drawing room tastefully decorated. Light refreshments were served in the fore part of the evening. After which dancing, singing, and the playing of various pleasant games were indulged in. At 11 o'clock a dainty repast was served. After the guests were seated around the festive board, "Easy Jim" Small could not resist the temptation to sing "Home Aint Nothing Like This." At mid night, after a delightful evening's entertainment the guests departed, each wishing the young foreman of the McIntosh vineyards many happy and prosperous returns of the day.

The Ball Game

The ball game at Boyes Springs Sunday between Vallejo and the Olympic base ball teams was well attended as usual, and though the umpire seemed to favor the Vallejo team, was a good game. The Olympic boys were handicapped by having a crippled pitcher, and although he could certainly curve a ball to the queen's taste, he could not run for the ball when the Vallejos would take advantage of his disability and bunt the ball, thus gaining the first base and eventually the score. There were excellent plays made on either side, however, and although the close of the ninth inning found the score 5 to 9 in favor of the Vallejo team, it was a good game.

High School Report.

High School opened session Wednesday morning with an enrollment of forty-four pupils.

We were honored by a visit, from the trustees Monday morning.

The High School building has been visibly improved by new pictures, freshly blackened stoves, newly varnished furniture and book cases.

Due to the efforts of Professor Painter the laboratory has been thoroughly cleaned. The chemical compounds have been alphabetically arranged on the shelves and the apparatus used by the pupils, put in place.

Visitors will notice four new pictures in the hall, presented by the Southern Pacific Company to the Sonoma Valley Union High School. The pictures are large and are framed in a dark mission frame. The subjects are: Grizzly Giant, Vernal Falls, Rogue River and Vancouver's Pinnacles. We have Miss More to thank.

On Wednesday afternoon a student body meeting was presided over by Edna Cooper. The meeting was held for the election of officers. The result was as follows: Edna Cooper, temporary president; Donald Campbell, temporary secretary.

Now that we are settled, we extend a hearty welcome to all who visit us. We especially extend an invitation to parents to call.

The Concert and Ball

Tonight at Union Hall occurs the Promenade Concert and Ball given by Miss Emily Kearney and Mesdames Koenig and Murray. The affair promises to be delightful and a splendid financial success.

Lovers of dancing anticipate a fine time, as music is to be provided by Mrs. J. P. Berry and Prof. Steven son, of Santa Rosa, and Claude Johnson.

Another event, promising rare enjoyment and already looked forward to by Sonoma valley people, is to be a garden party at Agua Caliente Springs, the proceeds from which go to St. Joseph's fancy booth, which is in charge of the Presentation Convent.

Mrs. Theodor Richards personally arranges all details and hundreds of the valley pleasure seekers recognize the unexcelled ability of Mrs. Richards to provide all that might be desired in the way of enjoyable entertainment. Some fine talent has already been secured from San Francisco, including the Gaelic Dancers, who won such favor at a former party at Agua Caliente. Others, all first class, will contribute to make up a very fine program. This, in connection with dancing, for which good music has been secured, will make up an evening of rare pleasure.

Mrs. Richards, with her accustomed zeal, is sparing no effort in the arrangement of this affair and Sonoma's people may well anticipate Saturday night of next week, Aug. 28.

It has been definitely decided that Santa Rosa will have an automobile carnival on September 25th and 26th. #### Richards Wins Suit

Saturday last the suit of Mathewson vs. Richards was tried before Judge Small in the City Hall.

This suit was brought by H. P. Mathewson to collect a reward of $10 for the finding of a chain and locket which Miss Millie Richards had lost and advertised for in the columns of this paper some three months ago. Mr. Mathewson represented the party who found the chain and tried to collect the reward without divulging the name of the finder.

Naturally Mr. Richards refused to pay the reward without knowing the finder.

Suit was brought and Judge Small decided in favor of the defendant, Mr. Richards, and the plaintiff was ordered to pay costs.

Last April, on the 19th, he was convicted of burglary in San Francisco and let out on probation. His acts in this county are breaks in the agreement there and he will likely be sentenced to prison from San Francisco on his former conviction.—Republican.

Wise Talks by the Office Boy.

Did you ever hear a sermon as true as this: "A man's life is full of crosses and temptations. He came into this world without his consent and goes out against his will. When he is little the big girls kiss him and when he is grown the little girls kiss him. If he is poor he is a bad manager, if he is rich he is dishonest. If he needs credit he can't get it, if he is prosperous every one wants to do him a favor. If he is in politics, it's for pie; if he's out of politics, it's for pie; if he's a place for him. If he can't find a place for him, he doesn't give to charity, he's stingy; if he does it's for show. If he is religious, he's a hypocrite; if not, he's a hardened sinner. If he gives affection, he is soft; if he cares for no one, he is cold blooded. If he dies young, there was a great future before him; if he lives to a ripe old age he has missed his calling. The road is rocky, but man loves to travel it, especially if he is lucky in picking out things to do." Make the resolve today to become one of our customers. It will take that load of worry from you. Take a tip from me, you can't afford to buy your hats, shirts, underwear, neckwear, and clothing elsewhere.
